ORDER

This matter is before the court on the motion to continue by defendant Donald Handy (Handy) (Filing No. 49). Handy seeks a continuance of the trial of this matter scheduled for April 18, 2016. Handy has filed an affidavit whereby Handy consents to the motion and acknowledges he understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act (Filing No. 50). Handy's counsel represents that government's counsel has no objection to the motion. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. Handy's motion to continue trial (Filing No. 49) is granted.
2. Trial of this matter is re-scheduled for May 23, 2016, before Senior Judge Joseph F. Bataillon and a jury. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between April 11, 2016, and May 23, 2016, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason that defendant's counsel requires additional time to adequately prepare the case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).

DATED this 11th day of April, 2016.
